

Could you become a TRUSTEE?

- Make a real difference to the outcomes for young people
- Gain a variety of professional and personal skills
- Access to a wide variety of training and CPD
- Contribute to shaping the education of the next generation

Being a Trustee is a hugely rewarding form of voluntary work and can offer you the opportunity get involved in shaping education.

With thanks to Governors for Schools.

What are we looking for?

We need people with enthusiasm and a commitment to the role, willing to provide both support and challenge to the CEO and the drive to continually strive to make things better.

What difference will you make?

as an academy trustee, you'll play a pivotal role in shaping educational standards and strategies. You'll contribute directly to the provision of high-quality education. Your decisions impact the learning experiences of students, ensuring they receive the best possible education to thrive in their academic journeys.

What's in it for the volunteer?

- Contributing to educational excellence.
- Professional and personal growth.
- Networking and Collaboration
-

What will you be doing?

On average, an academy trustee will be expected to give 8 hours per month to the role. Academy trustees typically attend board meetings, participate in decision-making processes, and engage in occasional training or development sessions at a time to suit you. This manageable time commitment allows individuals to contribute meaningfully without overshadowing other aspects of their lives.

Contact us: for more information please contact Governance Lead
Danielle Benyon-Payne on dbenyon-payne@oaktrust.org