4. SCOPE AND PRINCIPLES

- 4.1 The Equality Act 2010 provides a single legal framework designed to be more effective at tackling disadvantage and discrimination. It places legal responsibilities on the Trust and covers the following nine protected characteristics:
 - 4.1.1 Age - a person of a particular age or belonging to a particular age group.
 - 4.1.2 Race - a group of people defined by their race, colour, and nationality (including citizenship) ethnic or national origins.
 - 4.1.3 Disability - a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on that person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.
 - 4.1.4 Sex - a man or a woman.
 - 4.1.5 Sexual Orientation - whether a person's sexual attraction is towards their own sex, the opposite sex or to both sexes.
 - 4.1.6 Gender Reassignment - a person who has undergone the process of transitioning from one gender to another.
 - 4.1.7 Marriage and Civil Partnership - regardless of between a man and a woman or a same-sex couple.
 - 4.1.8 Pregnancy and Maternity - being pregnant or expecting a baby and the period up to 26 weeks after giving birth, including breastfeeding.
 - 4.1.9 Religion and Belief - religious and philosophical beliefs, including lack of belief, which affect life choices or the way a person chooses to live.

- 4.2 Equality of opportunity and inclusivity are fundamental to the vision and values of the Trust. The commitment to equality and diversity is, in part, achieved through the eradication of discrimination and is implemented through appropriate policies, procedures and good practice which reflect the following key principles:

- 4.3 All staff, pupils and stakeholders have a duty to act in accordance with both the content and spirit of this policy and treat one another with respect and dignity at all times. The Trust will not tolerate discrimination on the basis of any of the protected characteristics listed above and will treat all instances of such conduct extremely seriously. Conduct which does not comply with this policy may be dealt with under the Trust's Disciplinary Policy (staff) or Behaviour Management Policy (pupils) as appropriate.
- 4.4 This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time following consultation with staff and recognised trade unions.

5. DEFINITIONS

- 5.1 Equality

The Equality and Human Rights Commission describes equality as “ensuring that every individual has an equal opportunity to make the most of their lives and talents, and believing that no one should have poorer life chances because of where, what or whom they were born, what they believe, or whether they have a disability”.

5.2 Diversity

Diversity can be described as having or being composed of differing elements. In the context of this policy, diversity exists in both visible and non-visible ways through our employees, pupils and stakeholders having physical, religious and cultural differences and varied life experiences and choices, views and perspectives. The Trust aims to foster an environment in which diversity is promoted and celebrated through inclusion, respect and appreciation of one another.

5.3 Direct Discrimination

Direct Discrimination is the term used in law to describe a situation in which an individual is treated less favourably than someone else has been treated (or would be treated) because of a protected characteristic they have or are thought to have or because they associate with someone who has a protected characteristic under the Equality Act (see paragraph 2.1 above). Unless there is a statutory exception, direct discrimination cannot be excused or defended in law.

5.4 Indirect Discrimination

Indirect discrimination can occur when action is taken which appears to treat everyone equally, but which in practice leads to people from a particular protected group under the Equality Act 2010 (see paragraph 2.1 above) being treated less favourably than others. This may occur through the implementation of policies or procedures and will not be justified unless the action is needed to achieve a legitimate aim, and the means of achieving that aim are appropriate and necessary.

5.5 Victimisation

Victimisation occurs when a person is treated less favourably because they have asserted their legal rights in line with the Equality Act 2010 or supported another individual to do so.

5.6 Harassment

Harassment can be described as unwanted conduct related to one of the protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010 (see paragraph 2.1 above) which has the purpose or effect of violating the individual's dignity or of creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating, or offensive environment.

6. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

All Trust policies and procedures will be designed to promote equal opportunity and protection against discrimination for all employees, pupils and stakeholders. The impact of any policy changes on equality issues will be considered prior to implementation. In some instances of substantial changes to policies or procedures, a formal equality impact assessment will be required.

7. DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION

7.1 The Trust supports the ethos of the social model of disability which attempts to remove barriers that restrict life choices for disabled people. The Trust encourages all employees, pupils (or their parents/carers) or stakeholders to alert a relevant member of staff if they are disabled or become disabled in order that the Trust can support them as appropriate.

7.2 If employees, pupils or stakeholders experience difficulties at work or school because of their disability, they (or their parents/carers in the case of a pupil) should speak to their line manager or a senior member of staff to discuss any reasonable adjustments that would help overcome or minimise the difficulty. It may be necessary for the line manager or senior member of staff to consult with other senior staff, HR, the individual (and their parents/carers in the case of a pupil) and their medical adviser(s) about possible adjustments. In the case of an employee, the Trust may also seek advice and guidance from an occupational health advisor. The Trust will consider the matter carefully and try to accommodate the individual's needs. If the Trust consider a particular adjustment would not be reasonable, the reasons will be explained and the Trust will try to find an alternative solution where possible.

7.3 The Trust will monitor the physical features of the organisation's premises and buildings to consider whether they place disabled workers, pupils or stakeholders at a substantial disadvantage compared to other staff, pupils or stakeholders. Where reasonable, the Trust will take steps to improve access for disabled individuals.

8. RESPONSIBILITIES AND ACCOUNTABILITIES

8.1 It is important to remember that each individual is responsible for their acts, carried out both within and outside employment. Any person instructing, inducing or encouraging others by inaction or action to behave in a manner which is inconsistent with this policy will themselves be in breach of this policy and will be dealt with accordingly.

8.2 The Trust Board and Local Governing Bodies

Training and Guidance in Relation to the Equality and Diversity Policy

- 9.10 Questions in relation to the content or application of this policy should be directed to the Headteacher, CEO or HR to request training or further information.
- 9.11 Employees will be given appropriate training in relation to equality and diversity awareness and equal opportunities recruitment and selection best practice, as appropriate to role.

Breaches of this Policy

- 9.12 If an employee believes that they may have been treated in a way that is inconsistent with this policy, they are encouraged to raise the matter informally with the individual concerned or their line manager where possible. If this is not possible, or does not resolve the situation, they should raise the matter through the Trust's Grievance Policy or other relevant policy where applicable.
- 9.13 If an employee believes the treatment of a colleague, student or stakeholder by another member of staff constitutes a breach of this policy, they should raise this directly with the individual whose conduct is of concern, or with their line manager or through the Trust's Whistleblowing Policy.
- 9.14 Allegations regarding potential breaches of this policy will be taken seriously and will be investigated in accordance with the relevant policy and procedure. 10. PUPILS

Access to Education and Curriculum

10.1 The Trust is committed to operating admissions arrangements which reflect a fair and equitable process, ensuring admissions applications are assessed in accordance with each academy's Admissions Arrangements Policy.

10.2 The Trust is also committed to delivering high quality academic, vocational and enriched education and curriculum for all its pupils. This is with the aim of enabling each pupil to fulfil their potential academically, socially, morally, spiritually and physically.

10.3 All pupils in the care of the Trust, regardless of any protected characteristics, ability or circumstance, are expected to become individual, independent learners and fulfil their potential through appropriate levels of attainment and achievement.

Access to Other Opportunities

10.4 Each school will ensure that access to wider opportunities will be made available to all pupils in a fair and equitable manner and one which is consistent with the principles of this policy.

Recognition of Positive Behaviour and Behaviour Sanctions

10.5 Each school will ensure that any recognition of positive behaviour is based on merit and determined and applied in a consistent manner in order that all pupils have opportunity to be rewarded, recognised and motivated as appropriate.

10.6 Each school will ensure that expectations in relation to student behaviour are determined and measured in a consistent manner. Any behaviour sanctions will be applied in accordance with the appropriate Behaviour Policy and on the facts of the situation and without discrimination.

Training and Guidance

10.7 Pupils are offered a wide range of opportunities to deepen their knowledge about all aspects of their local, national and wider community. This is achieved in part through high quality assemblies and other relevant sessions. Schools ensure that the personal, social, health and economic education (PHSE) and spiritual, moral, social and cultural development (SMSC) curriculums are underpinned by the celebration of equality and diversity.

Breaches of this Policy

10.8 Pupils and/or their parents or carers are encouraged to speak to a member of staff that they trust if they feel that they or anyone else is being treated in a way that is

Ensuring a fair investigation, and an educative approach should be the focus for dealing with any student who breaches the expectations.
